This recently acquired vineyard is one of the symbols of Neive. Since we have an increasingly well-defined concept of territorial storytelling in our heads, we find it wonderful to be able to reap the fruits and transform them, by following the principles of awareness and respect that have accompanied us over the last decade.

The emphasis on the word identity is the thing that thrills us the most and thanks to these 3000 metres of land, the framework of the Barbaresco area is essentially more complete and clearer. This vineyard has a great expressive power and this convinced us to début on the market at its first vinification.

The soils are marly-calcareous, with a rich presence of light-coloured sands, and the wine is rich and flavoursome. The deep bouquet alternates between floral and fruity notes, with hints of undergrowth to complete the aromatic picture.

In the mouth, it is enticing and satisfying without bringing with it any sense of slackness: it is firm, chewy yet refined.
